NEW YORK
NATIONAL AMERICANCHOLLY KNICKERBOCKER SAYS

BETWEEN YOU AND ME AND THE LAMPPOST 29 (AND 20,000,000 READERS): The red-hot rumor making the rounds of the UN is that French Ambasador Guillaume Georges-Picot will not return to his post, but will be replaced by Algerian right-wing rebel Jacques Soustelle. This move would accomplish a dual purpose — first, that of removing a pesky thorn from De Gaulle's side and, second that of "purging" the French Foreign Office of diplomats not 100 per cent behind the General. Georges-Picot's Russian-born wife, Nadya, has made no secret in the past of her anti-De Gaulle feelings and some time ago was discreetly invited to return to Paris and fermer la bouche.
